

English AA-T (IGETC GE Track)

+If you have completed coursework at another college and/or are starting in a semester other than a Fall term, please follow up with the Counseling Department to determine if this sequence is appropriate for your academic and career goals.

The study of English prepares students for careers in any field for which close reading, critical thinking, and thoughtful, accurate written and verbal expression are necessary. The English Department offers several areas of instruction: 1) Transfer-level composition courses, which fulfill the language and rationality general education requirement and reading and writing competency requirements for graduation, as well as CSUGE and IGETC transfer requirements; 2) Literature courses, which fulfill humanities general education and transfer requirements and provide cultural enrichment as well as experience with close reading and analysis; 3) Creative writing courses, which fulfill humanities general education and transfer requirements and provide instruction in multiple genres as well as literary magazine production; 4) Technical writing courses, which prepare students for writing in the workplace; 5) A linguistics course, which analyzes systems of grammar, the social and historical contexts of language, language learning, and language change. The Student Transfer Achievement Reform Act \(SB 1440\).

Program SLO: Apply multiple perspectives and elements of argument to analyze and interpret texts. Apply genre appropriate writing strategies to produce full-length college writing.

Important Transfer Information: The sequence listed below, may not meet all your transfer admissions requirements. Connect with a counselor to develop an individual student education plan through the Counseling Department @ <https://www.canyons.edu/counseling> or (661) 362-3288/(661) 362-3811.
