

BP 5909 International Students

References:

Immigration and Nationality Act, No. 82-414

- 5909.1 The College accepts applications from international students who intend to study in the United States on a temporary basis under the provisions of their visa category as required by Federal Law.
- 5909.2 The College follows the current administrative procedures for international students' admission, tuition requirements and their student status sponsorship.

See Administrative Procedures [AP 5909]

Approved 12/7/11