

AP 6810 Standard of Conduct of Non-Students and Visitors

Reference:

California Penal Code sections 626.4 and/or 626.6.

1. Persons who are not students or employees of the District shall not engage in the following conduct while on District property or through any online interaction the person may have with another member of the campus community. Engaging in such conduct may be grounds for removal from District property in accordance with the provisions of California Penal Code sections 626.4 and/or 626.6.
 - A. Theft, conversion, or damage or destruction, including, but not limited to, cutting, defacing, vandalizing, or marking with graffiti any property, real or personal, belonging to the College, a member of the College staff, a student, or a campus visitor, or knowingly receiving stolen College or District property or private property on campus.
 - B. Forgery, alteration or misuse of College documents, keys, records, or identification, or knowingly furnishing false information to the College or one of its officials, or any fraud activity including, but not limited to, reversing credit card charges to avoid paying fees, or failure to make good on returned checks cashed by the College.
 - C. Loitering or remaining in areas of the college that are not normally open to the public (e.g., classrooms, administrative or faculty offices) without permission from an authorized District employee.
 - D. Physical or verbal abuse, or harassment, including, but not limited to, sexual harassment, or any threat of force or violence including physical altercation, flaming, bashing, bullying, intimidation, harassment, sharking or any abusive, threatening, coercive, or hostile behavior, including online interaction, directed toward any member of the College, or members of his or her family, or a campus visitor, or any harassing or discriminatory behavior based on race, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, national origin, disability, or any other status protected by law.
 - E. Sexual harassment, including, but not limited to, the unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that may include unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and/or other verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature. Sexual harassment also encompasses nonsexual conduct, provided the behavior is unwelcome, is based on sex or sexual stereotyping, and has the effect of interfering with a person's ability to participate in or benefit from a College program.

- F. Sexual assault, including, but not limited to, actual or attempted sexual contact with another person without that person's consent, such as rape, forced sodomy, forced oral copulation, rape by a foreign object, sexual battery, or threat of sexual assault.
- G. Sexual misconduct, including, but not limited to, non-consensual sexual activity that does not involve touching, such as exposing oneself, voyeurism, or transmitting sexually explicit photos or videos of oneself to others.
- H. Sexual exploitation, including, but not limited to, a person taking sexual advantage of another person for the benefit of anyone other than that person without that person's consent, regardless of the victim's affiliation with the College, such as prostituting another person; recording and/or distributing images or audio of another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness without that person's consent; viewing another person's sexual activity, intimate body parts, or nakedness in a place where that person would have a reasonable expectation of privacy, without that person's consent and/or for the purpose of arousing or gratifying sexual desire.
- I. Stalking, including, but not limited to, engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others, or to suffer substantial emotional distress, including, but not limited to, activity that occurs in person, through electronic devices, online, or through social media, such as following, obsessive behavior, unwanted and/or excessive phone calls or other forms of communication, unwanted letters or messages, unwanted or threatening gifts, damage to property, threats, inappropriate appearances, or inappropriate confrontations.
- J. Dating violence, including, but not limited to, violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of a romantic or intimate relationship will be determined based on the length of the relationship, the type of relationship and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
- K. Domestic violence, including, but not limited to, felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or other than as a spouse, a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under California law, or any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under California law.
- L. Misuse of any student contact information obtained in any manner, including, but not limited to, sending harassing, stalking, threatening, offensive, indecent, lewd, or obscene correspondence or photos either through email, texting or social media, or making harassing, stalking, threatening, offensive, indecent, lewd, or obscene phone calls to another person.
- M. Misuse of email or engaging in other inappropriate forms of communication with College faculty or staff, including, but not limited to, communication by written notes, phone, voicemail, or any form of electronic communication.

- N. Manufacture, use, possession, distribution, sale, offer to sell, furnishing, arranging or negotiating the sale of any drug or drug paraphernalia, or being under the influence of alcohol, narcotics, recreational drugs (whether legal or illegal), or other dangerous drugs, or the abuse of any lawfully prescribed medication which causes the person to be so impaired as to be a danger to oneself or others, or to be disruptive to the educational or administrative process, on campus, or off campus at any College-sponsored event.
- O. Unauthorized entry into, unauthorized use of, possession of, or misuse of, College or District property, facilities, supplies or equipment, or vehicles, or unauthorized occupancy of any buildings or other facilities owned, rented, leased, or otherwise under the control of the College or District.
- P. Disorderly, lewd, indecent, obscene, or offensive conduct on District-owned or controlled property or at College-sponsored or supervised functions, or engaging in expression which is libelous or slanderous, or which so incites others as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of unlawful acts on College or District premises, or the violation of lawful College or District regulations, or the substantial disruption of the orderly operation of the College or District.
- Q. Possession, use, or sale of any weapons including, but not limited to, firearms, knives, explosives, dangerous chemicals, or other potentially harmful implements, substances, or objects, which could be classified as a weapon, or any imitation or replica weapons, which may cause alarm to the College community while on the College campuses or at a College or District-sponsored function without prior authorization of the CEO or designee.
- R. Failure to identify oneself to or failure to comply with directions of College officials acting in performance of their duties including, but not limited to, the provisions of the Penal Code Sections 626.6 and 626.8.
- S. Obstruction or disruption, continued disruptive behavior, continued willful disobedience, on or off campus, of the College's education process, administrative process, or other College function, or the open and persistent defiance of the authority of, or persistent abuse of, college personnel.
- T. Violation of any order of the CEO, notice of which has been given prior to such violation and which order is not inconsistent with any of the other provisions of this policy. This notice may be given by publication in the College newspaper, web site, social network, or by posting on an official bulletin board designated for this purpose.
- U. Soliciting or assisting another to undertake any act, which would be a violation pursuant to this policy.
- V. Abusive behavior directed toward, or hazing of, a member of the College community, or any act, which injures, degrades, disgraces or tends to injure, degrade, or disgrace any fellow student or member of the campus community.

- W. Any other cause not listed above which is identified as good cause by Education Code Sections 76032 and 76033.
- X. Abuse of computing facilities or computer time, including, but not limited to unauthorized entry into a file to use, read, or change the contents or any other purpose; unauthorized transfer of a file; unauthorized use of another individual's identification or password; use of computing facilities to interfere with the work of the College, faculty members, or College officials; and/or use of computing facilities to interfere with a College computing system. For specifics, refer to the College of the Canyons Acceptable Use Agreement.
- Y. Committing any act or engaging in any behavior that threatens or endangers the health or safety of another individual on campus or at any college sponsored activity or event.
- Z. Assault, battery, or any threat of force or violence upon a student or college personnel.
- AA. Willful misconduct that results in injury or death to a student, College or District personnel, or a campus visitor.
- BB. Unauthorized preparation, selling, giving, transfer, distribution, or publication, for any commercial purpose, of any contemporaneous recording of an academic presentation in a classroom or equivalent site of instruction, including but not limited to handwritten or typewritten class notes, or any materials that are the intellectual property of a faculty member, except as permitted by any district policy or administrative procedure;
- CC. Gambling on College or District property.
- DD. Willful or persistent smoking of tobacco products, or the use of an electronic cigarette, hookah pen or pipe, or similar device used to ingest flavored serums, with or without nicotine and which dispense vapors, in any area where smoking or use of vapor emitting electronic cigarettes, pens, pipes or similar devices has been prohibited by law or by regulation of the College or District.
- EE. Violation of College or District policies or of campus regulations including those concerning chartering and registration of student organizations, use of College or District facilities, or the time, place and manner of public expression.
- FF. Misuse of a campus parking permit issued by the College or District including, but not limited to, selling a College-issued student parking permit to another student, giving an expired student parking permit to another student, allowing a current or expired student parking permit to be borrowed by another student, making use of any stolen College-issued parking permit, creating or making any form of falsified or fake student or faculty/staff parking permit with the intent for use on a District campus.

GG. Violations of California Vehicle Code or local traffic violations, which cause a threat to persons or property, or the orderly operation of the College by virtue of the nature or frequency of the violations.

HH. Failure to pay, in a timely manner, parking citations written by the College's Campus Safety Officers for parking violations, which occur on the College's campuses.

II. False accusations or malicious charges against any student or member of the campus community.

JJ. Violation of federal, state, or local statute or ordinance, or District policy, rule, or regulation while on College property and during all hours.

KK. Attempting to perform any actions that are prohibited above.
