Recognition

MODEL UN EXCELS AT CONFERENCE – MARCH 11

At the first Model UN Conference of the year, the College of the Canyons team was named “Outstanding Delegation” at the event at Cal State Long Beach on March 11th!

- Of the 19 COC delegates, 16 won awards.
- While COC accounted for approximately 10% of the 200 delegates, our students accounted for approximately 70% of the awards.
- Our community college students compete against mostly 4-year universities.

SILVER SPUR – MARCH 18

On March 18th, 208 friends, family and colleagues gathered to honor and recognize Jack and Doreen shine for their commitment to the college and the community.

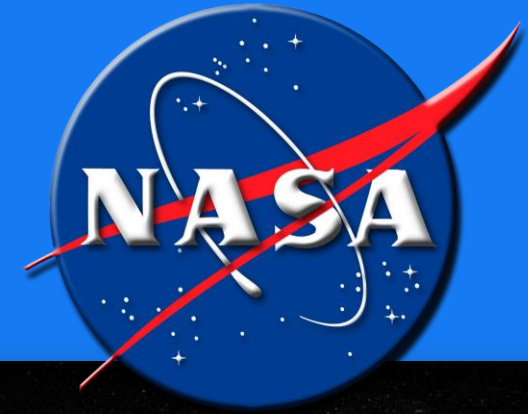

- Guests sat atop the Sheraton Universal in the Starview Room and enjoyed a wonderful evening of cocktails, dinner, music and a lively auction.
- Eric Harnish and Rich Fandre created a beautiful tribute video that told the story of the Shines with humor and honesty.
- Brian Koegle and Nick Lentini served as the Masters of Ceremony as well as the auctioneers.
- The event was co-chaired by Brian and Lindsay Koegle and Nick and Elise Lentini.
- It was truly a night to remember!

COC INSTRUCTORS SELECTED TO FLY ABOARD NASA MISSION

COC adjunct instructors Christine Hirst and Thomas Gavin have been selected by the Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence (SETI) Institute to join the 2017-18 NASA Airborne Astronomy Ambassadors (AAA) Program.

- Hirst and Gavin, who teach astronomy and physical science at COC as well as in the Hart District, will fly aboard NASA's Stratospheric Observatory for Infrared Astronomy (SOFIA), the world's largest aircraft-based observatory.
- Positioned above more than 99% of the atmosphere's water vapor, SOFIA makes it possible to conduct experiments and gather data that would otherwise be impossible to obtain.
- An intensive Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) experience, the SOFIA flight week provides participating educators with access to subject matter experts at NASA and science curricula to engage students in the classroom with real-world science.
- Hirst and Gavin are expected to fly aboard SOFIA in Fall 2017.

A total of 12 science teachers from the Hart District were selected.

COC STUDENTS SHINE!

Congratulations to Tanya Hauer and Natalie Miller, two of our Honors students who were recognized as members of the Phi Theta Kappa All California Academic First Team.

- Tanya and Natalie received their recognition on March 23rd in Sacramento.
- Natalie was also named the Coca-Cola Bronze Scholar, which came with a $1,000 scholarship!
- Additionally, Sabrina Ariss was recognized as a member of the 2nd team. She could not attend the event as she is volunteering in Nicaragua.
- Grades, leadership and community service determine selections to an Academic Team.
- The selection was determined by scores nominees received from the judges at the national level.
- A total of 93 students, 31 on the 1st team, 31 on the 2nd team and 31 on the 3rd team, represent some of the best of the 2 million students enrolled in the 113 California Community Colleges.

COC HONORS STUDENTS RECOGNIZED

Three students from College of the Canyons were recognized at the Honors Transfer Council of California Research Conference on April 1st at UC Irvine.

- Over 300 students from 31 California Community Colleges presented their research at the conference.
- This annual research conference gives students in community college honors programs the opportunity to present the results of their work.
- The three students presenting were:
 - ✓ Naomi Santa Cruz – Craft Beer for Biodiversity: How Buying Beer Locally Can Help National Biodiversity
 - ✓ Xochitl Hernandez – The Female Identity and the Allure of the Beauty Queen
 - ✓ Chelsea Glickman – How Advertisements Have Contributed to Childhood Obesity.
- Congratulations to Xochitl Hernandez for winning first place and a $500 scholarship!

TWO COUGARS REUNITE – MARCH 24

I was invited by former COC Vice President and current El Camino College Superintendent/President Dena Maloney to present “Shaping Change Through Collaboration and Innovation” on Friday, March 24th.

- The presentation was part of El Camino’s new PRIDE program that launched in February 2017.
- PRIDE stands for “People, Respect, Integrity, Diversity and Excellence” and is similar to our LEAP Leadership Program.
- Participants in the PRIDE program include faculty, classified staff and administrators.

GARDEN WALK – MARCH 25

A garden walk was held at the Canyon Country Campus on Saturday, March 25th.

- The weather was ideal for the mix of faculty, students and community members.
- Participants hiked the campus, seeded boxes in the Research Garden and planted perennials.
- They also examined flowers under a microscope.

IEPI PRT TO VISIT COC – APRIL 11

A Partnership Resource Team (PRT) under the Institutional Effectiveness Partnership Initiative (IEPI) visited COC on April 11th.

- In December COC requested that a PRT visit us and provide expertise in the area of noncredit.
- PRTs draw on the exceptional expertise and innovation from within the California Community College system to advance best practices and avoid potential pitfall.
- On April 11th the PRT, led by Dr. Anthony Beebe, Superintendent/President of Santa Barbara City College, met with key individuals at COC to look out what we are currently doing in the area of noncredit and work with us develop an Institutional Innovation and Effectiveness Plan.
- Once this plan is submitted, COC will be eligible to receive a grant of up to $200,000 to implement the plan.

OPEN EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES AT CSU BAKERSFIELD – APRIL 24

James Glapa-Grossklag and I have been invited to present a session on Open Educational Resources at CSU Bakersfield on April 24th.

- Sandra Bozarth from CSU Bakersfield heard our presentation at the Online Learning Consortium Collaborative hosted by the California State University System on February 16th and asked us to come to Bakersfield.
- The focus of the presentation will be on getting the faculty excited about making textbooks affordable and giving them some options and possibilities.

This is a promotional graphic for Open Educational Resources (OER). On the left side, there is a close-up photograph of a small, grey and white kitten looking towards the camera. To the right of the kitten, the text 'FREE TEXTBOOKS' is written in large, bold, white capital letters. Below that, 'OER YOU KIDDING ME!?' is written in large, bold, blue capital letters. Underneath the main text, there are three bullet points in white: '- save money', '- access immediately', and '- customized for your class'. At the bottom right, the website 'www.canyons.edu/OER' is listed in blue, followed by the logo for 'COLLEGE OF THE CANYONS'.
